

A GENEALOGIST'S CREED: "To forget one's ancestors is to be a brook without a source, a tree without a root!"

MINUTES OF APRIL MEETING:

More than thirty persons attended the organizational meeting of local genealogists on April 22, 1957, at 7:30 p. m., in the Lecture Hall of the Fort Worth Public Library. Officers elected for a six months term were Mrs. Edna Perry Deckler, President; E. Charles Hinckley, Vice-President; Mrs. John M. Stiffler, Secretary; and John Gano, Treasurer. A committee to begin work on a charter for the society was appointed with Mr. John T. Gano, Chairman; Mrs. J. P. Agerton, Mrs. Charles L. Sarrazin, Mrs. Deckler, and Miss Frances Coldwell. A free will offering was taken to cover expenses of the society until dues could be set.

GOALS AND PURPOSES OF SOCIETY SUGGESTED:

Some of the purposes and goals suggested are, as follows:

To exchange ideas and collaborate in devising efficient methods for genealogical research.

To create, foster, and maintain interest of local citizens in the Genealogy and Local History Section of the Fort Worth Public Library.

To preserve church, cemetery and land records, testamentary documents, diaries and manuscripts, and other source material.

To copy and index all such records and to catalogue them as to make this data more readily available to present and future generations.

To collect and make available the published records of all states in the Union.

To conduct workshops and study courses similar to those given in Washington, D. C., and in San Antonio, Texas.

To encourage the publishing of family histories.

To cooperate with the Local History and Genealogical Society of Dallas and similar genealogical societies throughout the state.

MINUTES OF THE MAY MEETING:

The second meeting of the Genealogical Society was held Monday evening, May 20, 1957, at 7:30 p. m., in the Lecture Hall of the Fort Worth Public Library. Miss Frances Coldwell, Librarian of the Local History and Genealogy section of the Fort Worth Public Library, spoke on the facilities available in her department. The guest speaker, Mr. John Platt Green, President of the Dallas Local History and Genealogy Society, explained the organization and accomplishments of the Dallas society. Mr. Green said that the Dallas society had "passed a law" that no one could speak of his own relatives, ancestors, or descendants, at a meeting; he inferred, this "law" was passed in order to avoid having anyone raise their herald too high or to attempt to fight the Revolutionary War, the Civil War, the War of 1812, or the Battle of San Jacinto on the library floor.

At a brief business meeting prior to the program, the officers and committee chairman made their reports. A free will offering was taken to cover expenses of the society until dues are set.

The society voted to hold their June meeting on Monday evening, June 24, 1957, at 7:30 p. m., at the Fort Worth Public Library.

LINES FROM LETTERS RECEIVED BY OUR SOCIETY:

"I note with pleasure that you are organizing a genealogical society-- I have just begun to get the San Antonio Genealogical Forum under way..."Lucille Stewart Krisch.

"I am delighted that my old home town has formed a Genealogical Society. It will be of great value to all patriotic organizations. That old cemetery down on (what used to be Samuels Avenue) has many old graves of history. My parents went to Fort Worth in 1880; moved here (S. A.) in 1908--but I still call Fort Worth "Home"--Miss Alice W. Lathrop, former Governor of the Mayflower descendants.

"The meeting of the Fort Worth Genealogical Society was most interesting last Monday night. I am sure that it will inspire many to trace their family histories and to learn the richness of our heritage." Mrs. Uel Stephens.

"Having been interested in the study of genealogy for some time, I am always pleased to see others take such an interest."--Chas. H. Lane, former State President, Sons of the American Revolution.

A GENEALOGICAL QUOTATION:

"What then is the American, this new man? He is either an European, or the descendant of an European, hence that strange mixture of blood, which you will find in no other country. I could point out to you a family whose grandfather was an Englishman, whose wife was Dutch, whose son married a French woman, and whose present four sons now have four wives of different nations. HE is an American..." Michel Guillaume Jean de Crevecoeur, "Letters of an American Farmer, 1782."

A GENEALOGICAL QUOTATION:

"Where the (Scottish) Chiefs of the Highlands have found the histories of their descent is difficult to tell; for no large genealogy was ever written. In general, this only is evident, and that those must have lived long in a place, of whom it is not known when they came thither."--Samuel Johnson, A Journey to the Western Islands of Scotland, 1773.

Editor's Note: Mr. Johnson wrote with authority but with English prejudiced inaccuracy. Although large was not a written language, the Highland Chiefs and their bishops had Latin, the world language, and many clans know from whence they came thither. The present Queen of England is of Scottish descent.

SOME RECENT CORRESPONDENCE RECEIVED BY THE SOCIETY:

Duncan McNaughton, Honorable Secretary, The Scottish Genealogy Society, 28 Pitbauchlie Bank, Dunfermline, Scotland, writes the following:

"We should be pleased to cooperate with your society so far as we can. We do not do research but I am in a position to recommend researchers, either a trustee body or private.

Our main medium is our magazine, a modest duplicated publication of reprints of lectures, articles, and queries. This cost 11/--per year for four copies post paid. Full membership which includes admission to lectures is 30/--per annum from October.

If you have a magazine perhaps we could co-operate on an exchange basis.

I will be glad to advise any of your members."
