Certain disqualifying offenses prohibit an individual from being employed as a Juvenile Probation Officer. The following questions and answers will determine your eligibility to be considered for employment with Tarrant County Juvenile Services as a probation officer.

Please (✓) your response to each of the following questions:

- 1) Except for minor traffic violations, have you had a felony conviction or deferred adjudication against the laws of this state, another state or the United States within the past 10 years? Yes No
- 2) Are you currently on felony probation or parole? Yes No
- 3) Have you had a jailable misdemeanor conviction or deferred adjudication against the laws of this state, another state or the United States within the past 5 years?
 Yes No
- 4) Are you currently on misdemeanor probation or parole? Yes No
- 5) Are you required to register as a sex offender under Chapter 62, Texas Code of Criminal Procedure? Yes No
- 6) If previously certified as a Juvenile Probation or Detention Officer, is your certification currently under revocation or suspension? Yes No

If the answer is yes to any of the above questions, you are disqualified from eligibility for employment as a Juvenile Probation Officer, Juvenile Detention Officer, Supervisor of Juvenile Probation Officers, Facility Administrator, or Chief Administrative Officer.
