vs } Reform Judgment.
Sam Elliston } Saturday Dec. 31st 1904.

On this day the motion of the State of Texas, in the above entitled cause to have the judgment in cause No. 29577, reformed and re-entered in cause No. 29648 coming on to be heard, and it appearing to the court that the order heretofore entered on to wit the day of November A.D. 1904, in cause No. 29577 was by mistake entered in said cause and should have been entered in cause No 29648 as shown by the motion of the State of Texas on file herein, and it further appearing to the court that notice of said motion was duly and legally served upon defendants attorneys of record McLean & Scott as required by law, and that said order to wit "P. G. Defendants punishment assessed at a fine of $100.00" should have been entered in cause No 29648. instead of cause No 29577.

It is therefore ordered adjudged and decreed by the court that said entry be changed from cause No. 29577 to cause No. 29648 and that the clerk of this court do issue execution and writ of commitment on cause No. 29648 instead of cause No 29577 and that defendants plea of guilty be entered in cause No. 29648.

Therefore it is ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that the State of Texas do have and recover of and from the defendant Sam Elliston the sum of $100.00 fine in cause No 29648, and all costs of prosecution for which let execution issue. It is further adjudged upon defendants plea of guilty to the offence of adultery that he is guilty of said offence and that he be committed to the Sheriff of Tarrant County's custody until said fine and costs shall have been fully paid. for all of which let executions and commitments issue,
