And whereas, the Hon. C. T. Prewett, Judge as aforesaid has issued his order herein that a sale of said property be made on Jan. 4th. 1910, in accordance with said affidavit.

THEREFORE, you are hereby commanded that you sell the above described property, a fuller and more complete discription of which is set out on your return on the writ of attachment heretofore served by you and to which reference is hereby made as under execution,

ON JAN. 4TH. 1910.

And that you pay over the proceeds of such sale within five days thereafter to the Clerk of this Court accompanied by a statement in writing signed by you officially to be filed with the papers in this cause, stating the time and the place of the sale, the name of the purchaser and the amount received with an itemized account of the expenses attending the sale.

Given under my hand and the seal of the county Court for Civil Cases at my office in Ft. Worth, Texas, this the 31st. day of Dec. 1909.

The first publication of which appeared on the 7th day of November 1913, the same being not less than twenty days immediately preceding the day of sale, and by mailing written notice to A. A. Brower and Mrs. A.A. Brower each a notice of such sale as required by law. That after I had advertised said land for sale, as aforesaid, under said execution, and before the date of said sale, on, to-wit November 28th 1913, at 3:20 o'clock P.M., I, as Sheriff of Williamson County, Texas, was duly and regularly served with a writ of injunction, regularly issued by A.J.Beavers, clerk of the County Court of Tarrant County, restraining and enjoining me from selling said property, above described, and by virtue of the issuance and service of said writ of injunction, said sale was not made and said property was not sold under said advertisement, and I, as such sheriff continued to hold said property under said levy, subject to the further order of said Court. That thereafterwards, on the 12th day of December, 1913, I was informed by an attorney purporting to represent the plaintiff in execution, that said writ of injunction had been dissolved by the honorable County Court of Tarrant County, Texas, but said information was by me received too late to re-advertise and sell said above described property under the terms of said execution. I therefore, make return of this execution, within the time prescribed therein, and ask that a writ of venditioni exponas issue in said cause #12,762, A. W.
