The first time I saw a person with a prosthetic arm, I was struck by the ingenuity of the design. The arm was made of metal and had a series of joints that allowed it to move in a way that was almost human. I was fascinated by the way the person used it, and I was determined to learn more about it.

THAT WE, (a) A. B. Carter, as principal, and (b) Republic Underwriters

as sureties are held and bound unto the Governor of the State of Texas, and his successors in office, in the sum of (c) Twenty Thousand and no/100 DOLLARS, for the payment of which well and truly to be made, we hereby bind ourselves and our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally by these presents.

SIGNED with our hands and dated this, the 14 day of Aug, A. D. 1926

WHEREAS, the above bounden has been elected to the office of Sheriff of the County of Tarrant, in the State of Texas, at the general election held therein, on the 10 day of November, A. D. 1926:

NOW, THEREFORE, THE CONDITION OF THE ABOVE OBLIGATION is such that, if the said A. B. Carter shall account for and pay over to the persons authorized by law to receive the same, all fines, forfeitures and penalties that he may collect for the use of the State or any County, and well and truly execute and due return make of all process and precepts to him lawfully directed, and pay over all sums of money collected by him by virtue of any such process or precepts, to the persons to whom the same are due, or their lawful attorney, and faithfully perform all such duties as may be required of him by law, and pay over to his County all moneys illegally paid to him out of County funds, as voluntary payments or otherwise, then this obligation to be void, otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, witness our hands.
