MASSACHUSETTS BONDING and INSURANCE COMPANY

Home Office, Boston, Massachusetts

WE Seth Newton Mayfield, Fort Worth, Texas, as principal, hereinafter called the "Employee," and the Massachusetts Bonding and Insurance Company, of Boston, Massachusetts, as Surety, bind ourselves to pay Mrs. Happy Shelton, County Clerk, Tarrant County, Texas, hereinafter called the "Employer," such direct loss not exceeding One Thousand and No/100 Dollars as the Employer shall have sustained of money or other personal property belonging to the Employer, or for which the Employer is responsible, by any act or acts of Fraud, Dishonesty, Forgery, Theft, Larceny, Embezzlement, Wrongful Abstraction or Wilful Misapplication on the part of the Employee, directly or through connivance while in the position of Deputy County Clerk or in any other position in the service of the Employer, during the period commencing at twelve o'clock noon on the 21st day of September, 1936, and ending with the termination of this suretyship.

Provided, however,

First: For any default within the terms of this bond claim may be made against the Surety at any time during the period for which premium hereunder has been paid to it, and for two years thereafter; but notice of such default shall be delivered to the Surety at its Home Office in the City of Boston, Massachusetts, within ten days after discovery.

Second: On application of the Employer, the amount of this suretyship may be increased or decreased by the Surety without impairing the continuity thereof, but the liability of the Surety under succeeding guarantees shall not be cumulative nor shall its aggregate liability exceed the largest single amount of suretyship in force during any period within which such loss shall have occurred; nor shall the suretyship granted for one period cover defaults occurring within any other period.

Third: Claim, if any, shall be subscribed and sworn to by the Employer, showing the items and dates of the losses and delivered to the Surety at its Home Office within three months next after filing notice of discovery. The Surety shall have two months after presentation of claim in which to verify and make payment, during which time legal proceedings shall not be brought against the Surety, nor brought at all after the expiration of twelve months from the filing of such statement of claim.

Fourth: In case of recovery, whether made by the Employer or the Surety, on account of any loss hereunder from any source (other than reinsurance, collateral or indemnity taken by the Surety for its own benefit), the net amount of such recovery, less the actual cost and expense of making same, shall be applied to the reimbursement of the Employer in full for such loss, the excess if any to be paid to the Surety, and the Employer shall execute all papers required by the Surety, and render all assistance, not pecuniary, to secure to the Surety the rights herein provided for.

Fifth: This suretyship shall terminate:

(a) Upon the retirement of the Employee from the service of the Employer, or the discovery of loss hereunder.

(b) Upon thirty days' notice from the Surety to the Employer; or upon notice from the Employer to the Surety specifying the date of cancellation. Thereupon the Surety shall refund the unearned premium if no claim has been paid.

(c) By nonpayment of agreed premium for a period of three months from effective date of this bond and renewal thereof.

Sixth: If any limitation herein for giving notice, filing claim or bringing suit is prohibited or made void by any law controlling the construction hereof, such limitation shall be deemed to be amended so as to be equal to the minimum period of limitation permitted by such law. If the Employer be a corporation, the act or knowledge of any officer or director thereof, not in collusion with such defaulting Employee, shall be deemed the act or knowledge of the Employer within the meaning hereof. No one of the above conditions or provisions contained in this bond shall be deemed to have been waived or altered unless the waiver or alteration be in writing over the signature of an officer of the Surety, and no notice to any agent of the Surety or knowledge possessed by any such agent shall be held to effect a waiver or change in this contract or any part of it.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Employee has hereunto set his hand and seal and the Massachusetts Bonding and Insurance Company has caused this bond to be signed and its corporate seal to be hereunto affixed by its Attorney-in-Fact this 17th day of October, A. D. 1936.

THE FORT WORTH NATIONAL BANK
TO DEPOSITORY CONTRACT
TARRANT COUNTY

THE STATE OF TEXAS
COUNTY OF TARRANT

WHEREAS, the Commissioners' Court of Tarrant County, at the January term thereof in the year 1937, solicited proposals of the various banks and banking corporations in the County as might desire to be selected as a Depository for trust funds in the possession of the County and District Clerk; and

WHEREAS, the banks in the County declined to make bids, except that The Fort Worth National Bank submitted its proposal to the effect that it would be willing to assume the duties as such Depository and would secure the same by the pledge of securities of the kind and in the manner as provided by law for its qualification as County Depository and would pay interest upon said funds at rate of 1/4 of 1% per annum until August 23, 1937, same payable on August 23, 1937, and no interest thereafter.

WHEREAS, the Commissioners' Court has made diligent inquiry and effort to obtain other and better proposals, but has wholly been unable to do so; and it now considers it to the best interest of the County and of all persons concerned that the proposal of The Fort Worth National Bank be accepted, that said bank be and it has been duly selected as the Depository of the trust funds in the possession of the County and District Clerks of Tarrant County, Texas, and that said Bank be permitted to qualify as such Depository by its pledging and depositing as security and for the fulfillment of its obligations as such Depository negotiable, valid, and subsisting bonds, representing money liabilities of the political subdivisions and other entities which are permitted by law to be used as such securities; and that such securities be deposited in a safe or vault under the control of the Commissioners' Court of Tarrant County, Texas, as hereinafter outlined;

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the premises and pursuant to the aforesaid action on the part of the Commissioners' Court of Tarrant County, Texas, The Fort Worth National Bank, a national banking corporation domiciled in the City of Fort Worth, Tarrant County, Texas, has transferred, assigned, pledged, and set over to Tarrant County, and by these presents does transfer, assign, pledge, and set over to Tarrant County, as security for the acts, obligations and debts of said The Fort Worth National Bank as such official Depository of the trust funds in the possession of the County and District Clerks of said County, the title to the following bonds and securities, which bonds and securities constitute subsisting and enforceable obligations of the respective obligors whose names are subscribed thereto and which are in conformity with Paragraph (c) of Article 2547 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as now amended by the Legislature of this State, such securities aggregating the principal sum of $60,000.00, and briefly described thus:

TARRANT COUNTY WATER CONTROL AND IMPROVEMENT DISTRICT #1, SER. B, 4½% Bonds:

$19,000.00 due March 15, 1937
20,000.00 due March 15, 1938
21,000.00 due March 15, 1939

It is expressly agreed and stipulated that when and as funds have been withdrawn from said Depository, the Depository shall have the privilege, upon proper application to the Commissioners' Court of the County, to withdraw such an amount of said securities as will equal the amount of funds so withdrawn from said Depository; that is to say, as withdrawals from said funds are made the Depository, upon proper application to the Commissioners' Court, shall be entitled to withdraw said securities in such amounts as money has been withdrawn from said funds; provided, however, that if and as, from time to time, additional funds applicable hereunder shall be deposited, said Depository shall forthwith pledge, as in the first instance, additional approved securities, so that said Depository shall at all times have sufficient securities pledged hereunder with said County to equal in amount the money on deposit in said trust funds.

The foregoing bonds and securities are transferred and conveyed to Tarrant County and the title thereto vested in said County for and upon these conditions, namely: That said The Fort Worth National Bank binds itself, its successors and assigns, that it will faithfully discharge and perform all and singular the duties and obligations devolving by law upon it as such Depository for the trust funds in the possession of the County and District Clerks of Tarrant County, Texas, and that it shall comply with all and singular the requirements of the laws of the State of Texas relative to same and shall perform each and all of the conditions required and discharge all the duties imposed on it by law as such Depository and by the terms of this instrument.

It is further agreed that in the event of the breach of this obligation or any part thereof on the part of said Depository, Tarrant County shall be and it is hereby authorized, through any officer designated by the Commissioners' Court thereof, to sell and deliver said bonds and securities, or so much thereof as may be necessary, at a price not less than the prevailing net quotation offers on the New York Stock Exchange or in recognized market places in the United States of America for the securities pledged hereunder and involved in such sale, at public or private sale and on such terms and conditions as such County, through its Commissioners' Court, and upon such notice as such County may deem proper, and may apply the net proceeds of such sale or sales toward the satisfactory discharge, to the extent that same may be applicable, of the obligation or obligations of said Depository hereunder, and no one such application of such proceeds shall void the obligations of this contract that are and which may be from time to time yet unfulfilled, but as many such sales and as many such applications of such proceeds may be had as may be requisite and necessary to the due, complete and faithful observance and performance of the obligation or obligations herein contained.

This obligation shall extend to and cover the entire period of time for which said The Fort Worth National Bank shall act as such Depository in accordance with the aforesaid designation made by the Commissioners' Court of Tarrant County; but when all the conditions, terms, stipulations and covenants of this obligation shall have been fulfilled and no breach thereof of any kind committed, then and in that event the securities deposited by virtue of this agreement, or any substitution therefor or so much thereof as may be applicable thereto by virtue of the premises, shall be returned to said The Fort Worth National Bank, the Depository herein, and due receipt executed therefor.

It is further agreed and stipulated that the foregoing bonds and securities shall be kept in fireproof and burglar-proof safe, the combination of which shall be held and kept during the period of the contract by the Commissioners' Court of Tarrant County, or by some person in the employ of Tarrant County thereunder duly authorized. The Fort Worth National Bank shall, without cost to Tarrant County, furnish such safe or vault which shall be situated on the premises of said The Fort Worth National Bank in the City of Fort Worth, Tarrant County, Texas; but any loss, misplacement, theft, injury damage or other misappropriation arising from any cause whatsoever that may be occasioned to such bonds or securities or any of them, while in the safe or vault on the premises of said The Fort Worth National Bank or in any other safe or vault that may be provided or used under the terms of the next succeeding paragraph hereof, shall be borne by said Depository and not by Tarrant County (save and except for any such loss, injury or damage that may be due to the acts of said Commissioners' Court of Tarrant County or by someone duly authorized by said Court in the premises); provided, that the Bank reserves the right and privilege of having its Cashier or one of its Vice Presidents actually present whenever the Court or anyone representing it open said safe or vault for any purpose whatsoever.

And in the event that any part of said bonds or securities or any one or more of same should be lost, misplaced, stolen or otherwise appropriated without the written, authorized consent of the governing body of Tarrant County, said The Fort Worth National Bank shall be required, and it is made its duty, to forthwith restore the same or its equivalent to the satisfaction of the Commissioners' Court of Tarrant County, Texas. Provided further, that whenever Tarrant County shall deem the vault or safe so selected for the safekeeping of said bonds and securities unfit for such purpose, or insecure, then and in that event such securities and/or bonds, either one or both, may be kept in such safe place under the control of Tarrant County mutually to be selected by the representative of Tarrant County on the one hand and the representative of said The Fort Worth National Bank on the other; and in the event that agreement cannot be had under such arrangement, then the two such representatives shall select a third person and thereupon a majority shall control the decision; but this provisions shall not be construed to in any manner release The Fort Worth National Bank from any liability whether such safes or vaults or any of them be unsafe or not. In this connection, it is further stipulated that the combination to such safe or vault in which such securities are placed or kept shall be known only to Tarrant County or to someone designated therefor by the Commissioners' Court of said Tarrant County, and no other person shall have right of access to such securities except upon requisition of the Commissioners' Court of Tarrant County, duly executed by the County Judge presiding over said Commissioners' Court and of the Commissioners constituting a quorum of such Court, and duly recorded in the Minutes of such Court.

It is further agreed and stipulated that Tarrant County shall, during the life of this obligation, permit the substitution, in whole or in part, of other bonds or securities authorized to be accepted in such cases, for bonds or securities of equal amount, but in no event shall such substitution be less in intrinsic value than the bonds or securities so withdrawn, and in such event a memorandum shall be made showing the securities substituted and those withdrawn, which shall supplement this agreement but which shall in no wise affect, change, alter, or impair any of the obligations herein contained on the part of said Depository to be kept and performed, and all the stipulations herein relative to such original securities shall to the same and like extent apply to all such substituted securities that may be made hereunder from time to time. And it is further agreed and stipulated that if at any time it should appear to the satisfaction of the Commissioners' Court of Tarrant County that some of the bonds or securities or substitutes therefor have depreciated in value, so as to render Tarrant County unsafe, in the judgment of said Court, then and in that event the Depository herein shall be required, and it shall be its duty, to provide and substitute forthwith other securities permitted by law, of such intrinsic value as to fully cover the amount of any such depreciation, to the complete satisfaction of Tarrant County.

It is further agreed that said Depository may collect the maturing interest on said securities, but in no event shall the intrinsic value of the principal of said securities fall below the full amount of this obligation.

It is further understood and stipulated that said The Fort Worth National Bank has this day executed this Depository Security Agreement which the within contract and the securities hereinabove mentioned are given to secure, in lieu of the sureties or personal bonds, in accordance with the statute in such cases made and provided.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF said The Fort Worth National Bank, pursuant to Resolution of its Board of Directors, has caused these presents to be subscribed for and in its behalf by its Vice President and its corporate seal to be hereunto duly impressed; and Tarrant County, acting by and through its County Judge and Commissioners' Court, and pursuant to a Resolution of said Commissioners' Court, has duly executed this instrument; all on this the 16th day of February, 1937.

Premium $ 7.50

MASSACHUSETTS BONDING and INSURANCE COMPANY,

Home Office, Boston, Massachusetts

WE Charlotte Walton Johnston, Ft. Worth, Texas, as principal, herein-after called the "Employee", and the Massachusetts Bonding and Insurance Company, of Boston, Massachusetts, as Surety, bind ourselves to pay J. W. Shelton, County Clerk, Tarrant County Texas, hereinafter called the "Employer," such direct loss not exceeding Fifteen Hundred Dollars as the Employer shall have sustained of money or other personal property belonging to the Employer, or for which the Employer is responsible, by any act or acts of Fraud, Dishonesty, Forgery, Theft, Larceny, Embezzlement, Wrongful Abstraction or Wilful Misapplication on the part of the Employee, directly or through connivance while in the position of Deputy County Clerk, or in any other position in the service of the Employer, during the period commencing at twelve o'clock noon on the 1st day of January, 1935, and ending with the termination of this suretyship.

Provided, however,

First: For any default within the terms of this bond claim may be made against the Surety at any time during the period for which premium hereunder has been paid to it, and for two years thereafter; but notice of such default shall be delivered to the Surety at its Home Office in the City of Boston, Massachusetts, within ten days after discovery.

Second: On application of the Employer, the amount of this suretyship may be increased or decreased by the Surety without impairing the continuity thereof, but the liability of the Surety under succeeding guarantees shall not be cumulative nor shall its aggregate liability exceed the largest single amount of suretyship in force during any period within which such loss shall have occurred; nor shall the suretyship granted for one period cover defaults occurring within any other period.

Third: Claim, if any, shall be subscribed and sworn to by the Employer, showing the items and dates of the losses and delivered to the Surety at its Home Office within three months next after filing notice of discovery. The Surety shall have two months after presentation of claim in which to verify and make payment, during which time legal proceedings shall not be brought against the Surety, nor brought at all after the expiration of twelve months from the filing of such statement of claim.

Fourth: In case of recovery, whether made by the Employer or the Surety, on account of any loss hereunder from any source (other than reinsurance, collateral or indemnity taken by the Surety for its own benefit), the net amount of such recovery, less the actual cost and expense of making same, shall be applied to the reimbursement of the Employer in full for such loss, the excess if any to be paid to the Surety, and the Employer shall execute all papers required by the Surety, and render all assistance, not pecuniary, to secure to the Surety the rights herein provided for.

Fifth: This suretyship shall terminate:

(a) Upon the retirement of the Employee from the service of the Employer, or the discovery of loss hereunder.

(b) Upon thirty days' notice from the Surety to the Employer; or upon notice from the Employer to the Surety specifying the date of cancellation. Thereupon the Surety shall refund the unearned premium if no claim has been paid.

(c) By nonpayment of agreed premium for a period of three months from effective date of this bond and renewal thereof.

Sixth: If any limitation herein for giving notice, filing claim or bringing suit is prohibited or made void by any law controlling the construction hereof, such limitation shall be deemed to be amended so as to be equal to the minimum period of limitation permitted by such law. If the Employer be a corporation, the act or knowledge of any officer or director thereof, not in collusion with such defaulting Employee, shall be deemed the act or knowledge of the Employer within the meaning hereof. No one of the above conditions or provisions contained in this bond shall be deemed to have been waived or altered unless the waiver or alteration be in writing over the signature of an officer of the Surety, and no notice to any agent of the Surety or knowledge possessed by any such agent shall be held to effect a waiver or change in this contract or any part of it.

In witness whereof, the Employee has hereunto set his hand and seal and the Massachusetts Bonding and Insurance Company has caused this bond to be signed and its corporate seal to be hereunto affixed by its Attorney-in-fact this 12th day of December, A. D. 1934.
